

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

DAVID DARCUS BAILEY

NO. 3:22-CR-441-K

PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

Before the Court is the Government's Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, filed on August 8, 2024. The Court GRANTS the motion.

The Court FINDS:

Considering the defendant's plea of guilty to Count One of the Superseding Information charging the defendant with Possession with Intent to Distribute a Controlled Substance in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(B) and under 21 U.S.C. § 853(a), the defendant must forfeit to the United States any property constituting, or derived from, any proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly, as the result of such offense and any property used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of the offense.

Based on the government's motion, the defendant's plea of guilty, the plea agreement (Dkt. 65), and the factual resume (Dkt. 67), such property includes:

- a. A Smith and Wesson, model SD9-VE, 9mm caliber pistol, bearing serial number FZN4148;
- b. A Pioneer Arms Corporation, model Hellpup, 7.62 x 39mm caliber pistol, bearing serial number PAC114209820;

c. Any ammunition recovered with the firearms;

(“Subject Property”).

The Subject Property is subject to forfeiture under 21 U.S.C. § 853(a) because the United States has established the requisite nexus between the property and the offense.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(a) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b), all right, title, and interest in the Subject Property is forfeited to the United States of America.

Under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3), the Attorney General (or designee) is authorized to seize the Subject Property, conduct any discovery proper in identifying, locating, or disposing of the property subject to forfeiture, and commence an ancillary proceeding under 21 U.S.C. § 853(n) to account for potential third-party interests.

Under 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1), the United States shall publish notice of this Order on the government’s internet website, www.forfeiture.gov. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the Subject Property.

Under 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2), any person, other than the defendant, asserting a legal interest in the Subject Property may, within thirty days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier, petition the Court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his or her alleged interest in the Subject Property.

Under 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(3), any third-party petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the Subject Property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the Subject Property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claims, and the relief sought.

Under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(1)(B), after the disposition of any motion filed under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(1)(A), and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

Under 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(7), the United States shall have clear title to the Subject Property following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or if no petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period provided in 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2) for the filing of third-party petitions.

Under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4), this Order shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing and shall be made part of the sentence and referenced in the judgment.

The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

SO ORDERED.
